COMMUNITY MOMENTS by Dan Callahan

For 54 years Richard (Dick) Helfrich has served as greeter for Westminster Presbyterian Church. What he didn't know was how much the congregation appreciates his warm greeting each Sunday. Spearheaded by some very thoughtful church members, an "Appreciate Dick" luncheon was organized and held on Sunday, September 29th after morning worship. The light meal included a variety of sandwiches, snacks, and cookies. On a beautiful autumn day, the event brought out many to share their appreciation... We hope this will convey our gratitude and inspire Dick to continue! Thanks to everyone who came out and those who shared their time and talent behind the scenes.

With donated funds, Steve and Caden hard at work installing the new 'sails' over the playground equipment in the courtyard of Parish Hall. It was an intense project to get researched, laid out, necessary materials ordered, tweaking of the mechanics and assembled as time allowed. As of Thursday, Oct 3rd, it's done!
